Dear all

In this week's digest:

- CSIRO Data61 in Melbourne has an opportunity for a 3-year Postdoctoral Fellowship in Computational Fluid Dynamics. Closing date is 18 September, https://jobs.csiro.au/job/Melbourne%2C-VIC-CSIRO-Postdoctoral-Fellowship-in-Computational-Fluid-Dynamics/942855310/

- The Australian Earth System Simulator (ACCESS-NRI) is organising their ACCESS Community Annual Workshop 2023. This event will be held in Canberra, ACT, and online from 5-6 of September 2023. Following the two-day workshop, there is an additional one-day workshop planned for 7th Sept, that is being convened by the Forecasting and Prediction Working Group. This one-day workshop will provide a brief introduction to Machine Learning, explore recent progress in the application of ML in modelling and prediction, and include a discussion session on key issues and future opportunities. If interested, register by 20 August.

- Griffith University has a job opportunity for an Environmental Modeller, closing date 17 September 2023, see https://jobs.smartrecruiters.com/GriffithUniversity/743999924679128-lecturer-senior-lecturer-in-environmental-modelling

- A reminder that we invite all members to complete a feedback survey to help shape the next MODSIM in 2025 in Adelaide. https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/modsim2023
