

MODSIM 2025 Code of Conduct

MODSIM2025 is committed to providing a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment that promotes the open exchange of ideas, intellectual curiosity, and academic collaboration.

This Code of Conduct applies to all conference-related activities, including presentations, panels, workshops, poster sessions and social events associated with the conference.

All participants—attendees, presenters, organisers, sponsors, and volunteers—are expected to:

- Treat all individuals with courtesy, professionalism, and respect
- Foster a culture of constructive dialogue and academic integrity
- Engage in discussions that are open, thoughtful, and free from personal attacks
- Respect the diversity of perspectives, disciplines, and backgrounds
- Support the participation of all individuals

MODSIM 2025 has a zero-tolerance policy regarding aggression, harassment, violence or discrimination towards any conference attendee, staff or volunteer.

All participants have the right to:

- A safe and respectful environment
- Protection from abusive, aggressive, or violent behaviour
- Equal treatment regardless of gender, background, or role

Participants are expected to:

- Accurately represent their research and contributions
- Acknowledge the work of others appropriately
- Follow ethical guidelines for data use, authorship, and collaboration

If you or someone you know is concerned about any behaviour witnessed or experienced at a conference related activity please speak to MODSIM or Conlog staff. All concerns will be taken seriously and handled with discretion.

By participating in MODSIM 2025 you agree to uphold these standards and help ensure a positive, inclusive, and academically rewarding environment for all.